

a response to question 14

There are NO Foreign Owners

a response to question 15

We will NOT be constructing any new line, or acquire or operate any line, or engage in transmission over or by means of such additional line for the provision of common carrier communications services between the United States, its territories or possessions, and a foreign point shall request such authority.